MHTN team is built of 60 professionals that handles everything from Utah local accounts to National developments.

Lloyd Architects

Just around the corner from VCBO offices in downtown SLC is Lloyd Architects, whose architectural work is some of the very finest to be found in Utah and in fact, the USA. Sustainability drives their design, which is important to help build a culture of healthy, vibrant, and good for nature buildings. Their brand stands with integrity, "Building from here means being rooted in a location. Understanding the culture of a place. Both interpreting the past and inspiring a hopeful future by developing simple, authentic spaces. At Lloyd Architects, we find great meaning in building from here.'

Lloyd Architects have won many awards:

Utah Style & Design 2016

ENR Merit Award 2015

AIA Utah Merit Award 2015

Of course, without beautiful design they wouldn't be on our list, check out a few of their projects below, or visit the Lloyd website for more.

We love what Lloyd is all about, "we remain dedicated to design excellence in all aspects of our work. So we look beyond property lines. Think unconventionally. Work sustainably. Respect the environment, and integrate its resources in creative ways. Because we know that in addition to building and enhancing structures, we're contributing to the fabric of a community."

FFKR

FFKR Architects do great work when it comes to renovating older buildings and giving them a modern twist. Keeping Utah's classic architecture is a must and we are always glad to see older buildings restored. Besides being renovation masters, FFKR offer every other form of architecture you could possibly want; client-centered architectural, landscape architecture, planning, and even interior design.

"FFKR Architects provides innovative, client-centered architectural, landscape architecture, planning, and interior design services to a broad range of clientele across the United States. Our office is located in the historic Bogue Building in downtown Salt Lake City, Utah. FFKR has a reputation for design excellence, environmental leadership, and budgetary responsibility, and has been a Western Mountain Region AIA, and AIA Utah Firm of the Year. We maintain a staff of over 100 architects, designers and support personnel who have the talent, expertise and passion to meet our clients' most demanding challenges."

Awards: Western Mountain Region AIA, and AIA Utah Firm of the Year.
